May 11, 2025 Respect Life Corner

“Radical solidarity compels us to come alongside vulnerable mothers in profound friendship, compassion, and support for both them and their preborn children. It requires us to address the fundamental challenges that lead an expectant mother to believe she is unable to welcome the child God has entrusted to her. We must do all we can to provide mothers, children, and families with the support they need to flourish. This cannot be accomplished by laws or policy alone, but requires the continual transformation of our own hearts, recognizing in every person the face of Christ, and placing their needs before our own.”

Vocation Corner: We celebrate and congratulate all our Mothers today in their acceptance of one of the greatest vocations there is – Motherhood. Blessings on them all for all their sacrifices and their love. Today is also World Day of Prayer for Vocations. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to priesthood, diaconate and religious life in all its forms, male and female, contemplative and apostolic, to societies of apostolic life, to secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. Pray for all who have one of these calls.

And so I say to you, you are Peter,
and upon this rock I will build my church,
and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.
Matthew 16:18

+ Praised be Jesus Christ! We have a Pope!

Along with the clergy, consecrated religious, and lay faithful of the Diocese of Belleville, let us give thanks to God the Father and His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, that by the working of the Holy Spirit, today the successor to Saint Peter has been solemnly elected the Chief Shepherd of the Holy Catholic Church.

In his brief address to the world, Pope Leo XIV renewed the call to each of us, disciples of the Lord, to live His gospel of life: to receive the gift of humble and persevering peace, to open our arms to one another, to work fearlessly for justice, to rejoice in the resurrection, to gather in God’s people, to listen attentively to and dialogue charitably with one another together on the journey, in all things to build the Kingdom of Christ. Saint Augustine, the founder of Pope Leo’s religious order, said, “With you, I am a Christian; for you, I am a bishop.” Let us strive to walk in communion with our beloved Holy Father; let us support him with our prayers.

Indeed, we pray exultantly during this Easter Season and always for Pope Leo XIV. May God the Father strengthen him in leadership. May Jesus Christ direct him always in offering mercy. And may the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete, be in his mind, on his lips, and in his heart always and everywhere as he announces courageously the living Word of God.

May we walk together on the path that leads to the Risen Christ!

Peace —
